RESERVE OF OFFICERS.

The attention of Reserve Officers is particularly directed to the following Regulation:—

An Army Reserve Officer shall report himself at the commencement of each year, in writing, to the Secretary of the War Office. Should he fail to do so he shall (unless he be an Officer retired from the Regular Forces with liability for further service in case of emergency) be removed from the Reserve of Officers at the end of the year in which he fails to report himself.

Reserve Officers reporting themselves in compliance with this Regulation, will, at the same time, furnish their addresses for the current year; and any subsequent change of address should be at once notified to the War Office.

Reserve Officers accepting service under any Government Department, County, Borough, or Municipal Authority should notify the fact to the Secretary of the War Office as soon as possible.

(Officers whose names are printed in Italics are not immediately available for Army Service though liable to be recalled thereto.)

(Officers marked thus † are voluntarily in the Reserve of Officers.)

5. Paragraph 798.

In line 6, for "and mechanism of the rifle" substitute—

"mechanism of the rifle, theory of rifle fire (Sections 17 to 30, Musketry Regulations, Part I, 1909), standard tests, visual training and ranging."

6. Paragraph 801.

For lines 4 and 5, substitute—

"A warrant officer or N.C.O. who has less than three years to serve, or more than 15 years' service on the date on which the course begins, will not be detailed for any course without the special authority of the G.O.C.-in-C. in whose command his unit is serving."

Qualification in subheads d., (II.), and (III), in these circumstances will not, however, count towards qualification for regimental promotion.

9. Insert new paragraph—

1018A. When hand pumps are specially authorized they will be kept in a prominent position inside the building with a group of 3 to 5 fire buckets filled with water. It has been decided that in future the higher scale of baggage shall be allowed, on permanent change of station, for all officers (including married officers, not drawing lodging money, who are permitted to reside out of barracks) who were not provided with quarters furnished at the public expense at the station from which they proceed.

The following amendments will, therefore, be made in paragraph 449 (a), Allowance Regulations, as amended by Army Order 172 of 1907:—

(1.) For the headings to the three columns "Permanent duty" substitute—

Permanent duty.
Officers who, at the station from which they proceed, were not in quarters furnished at the public expense.	Officers who, at the station from which they proceed, were in quarters furnished at the public expense.

4. For paragraph 609, as amended by Army Order 149 of 1909, substitute—

609. C.O.s. will be held responsible that the chargers are properly cared for and are at all times fit for military duty, and that an officer does not use a charger for general purposes, unless he has paid the sum required by para. 607. They will also be responsible that a charger, whether used for general purposes or for military purposes only, is placed at the disposal of the remount department as soon as the officer using it ceases to be entitled to a charger.

609A. "Free" chargers may be used, at the discretion of the C.O., as hacks, at the risk of the officer to whom they are allotted. A hired charger may be used at the hirer's risk for any purpose except racing (other than regimental point-to-point races under military supervision), driving in broughams, or heavy harness work generally. A hired charger will not be hunted by anyone except the officer hiring it, and must not be taken away from the unit without the permission of the O.C., and then only in exceptional cases.

609B. An officer will be held financially responsible for any loss due to accident or injury when the horse is being used otherwise than on military duty. Should a disability occur when it is being used on military duty, the officer will be held similarly responsible if it be determined that there has been neglect, recklessness, or ill-treatment of any kind. In either case, the financial responsibility will be assessed as in para. 610.

5. Paragraph 610. For the first 6 lines substitute—

610. Accidents to Government chargers on or off duty which, in the opinion of the veterinary officer, are likely to cause permanent disability, will be investigated by a garrison board of senior combatant officers. An officer of the Army Veterinary Corps should attend the board. The board will obtain such evidence as may be necessary to assist in arriving at a correct conclusion as to the cause of the accident or injury, but will not be required to give an opinion. The proceedings of the board will be forwarded to the War Office, for consideration by the Army Council, who will determine the officer's liability.

If, in any case, it is decided that an officer is responsible he shall pay—

Mess allowance.

3. Paragraph 357. Add—

"During any period of leave it will cease to be issuable after the first seven days' absence."

4. Paragraph 358. In the last two lines delete from "Such" to "344" and substitute—

"During any period of leave this allowance will cease to be issuable after the first seven days' absence, and it will not be admissible during emergency service."

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, Colonel E. L. F. Jennings, M.V.O., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, and the desire of the Committee is to maintain the full complement.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average three candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-Commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

MILITARY WIDOWS' FUND, BRITISH SERVICE

(Late Queen's Military Widows' Fund.)

The Military Widows' Fund, British Service, was established in 1820 to alleviate the distress of families of officers of the British Service and to enable them to return to England without unnecessary delay. Whenever an officer of the British Service, who is a subscriber to this Fund, dies, his family receives at once, the following assistance, namely:—Six months maintenance allowance ranging from Rs. 2,400/ to Rs. 3,600/, according to rate subscribed, plus Rs. 1,500/ for passage for the widow, plus Rs. 500/ or Rs. 300/ for passage for each child, according to whether it is over or under 12 years of age. These benefits are secured by a small subscription of Rs. 4, 3, or 2 per mensem, which is regulated by the amount of pay an officer draws. An officer, immediately on becoming a subscriber, secures at once for his wife and children, quite irrespective of length of service in India, the full benefits of the Fund in case of his death.

In 1902 the sum of Rs. 31,200/ was paid in awards to families of deceased subscribers; and the total amount paid since the establishment of the Fund in 1820 exceeds Rs. 22,00,000/.

Copies of the Regulations of the Fund can be obtained from the Honorary Secretary at Simla.
